

SOUTHCOURT BAPTIST CHURCH PRIVACY STATEMENT

Purpose of this Statement

Southcourt Baptist Church is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. We think it is extremely important to keep any personal information we hold secure and confidential.

Laws apply to our use of anyone's personal information and everyone has rights regarding how their personal information is handled.

We have published this statement to tell you:

- What information we may collect about you;
- How we store your personal information;
- What we use your personal information for; and
- Who (if anyone) we pass it on to and for what purposes.

Personal Information we may collect from you

When you first come into contact with us (which may be for a variety of reasons) we may collect your name and contact details for use by us. Other information we may collect from you will depend on the reason for the contact and these are detailed below:

For employment or pension purposes:

- Detailed personal information such as full name including any former names, age, gender, date of birth, ethnicity, nationality, particular needs or preferences so that we can understand your relevant circumstances
- Additional personal information including marital status, previous marital status, dependants under 18, educational history and attainments, full employment history, Christian journey, church experience, interests and financial position
- Information we gain from others while processing your application, such as references, medical, criminal records information from the UK and overseas.
- Where required we will collect your bank details to enable your salary, pension or expenses to be paid

To provide pastoral or other support for church partners

- We may take a written note of any conversation you have with us and the information you share as part of that conversation
- We may keep copies of communications you send to us
- We may obtain information (including fact and opinion) from others, for example from a mentor, supervisor, colleague or other person

To provide a Food Bank service

- Detailed personal information such as full name, address, phone number, year of birth, ages of children, reasons for needing a food parcel

For raising the profile of our church and the work

- With your consent, we may use photo or video footage of you, or your story, for use in our various publications and on our website

For managing or reviewing our work as a church

- Any information about complaints about our church or individuals within our church

For work you are involved in within the church that needs a Disclosure and Barring Service check since you are working with children and/or vulnerable adults

- Your full name, email address, mobile phone number and date of birth.
- If we already have contact with you we have most likely already collected any/all of this information.

For church partnership purposes:

- Your full name, address, phone number, email address
- Your agreement to allow other church partners to have this information where required for the running of the church and pastoral care purposes

For Pre-school and other children's work purposes:

- Your child's full name and any special needs including allergies

Where we store your personal information

We are committed to holding your personal information securely. This means only those of our staff and leadership volunteers that need to see it have access.

We may store your information on computers, in paper form, or both.

All church computers within the office or at home including laptops are password protected. In addition, all electronic data is held with password protected Google accounts which can be accessed from any computer and potentially mobile phones.

Our paper files which hold personal information (other than names and contact details) are kept in securely locked cupboards.

We will hold and use your personal information until it is no longer required for our purposes.

What we use your personal information for:

- To contact you when organising events or groups
- To enter into our database (this information is accessible by our Operations Manager and our trustees) which holds:
 - Names and contact details of key people in our church.
 - Baptism dates
 - Dedication dates
 - Date of birth
 - Wedding Date
 - DBS Number
 - DBS issue date
 - Partnership Start Date
 - Addresses
- To enable us to be more effective in providing pastoral support to our church partners and regular church attendees.
- To send periodic emails to you if you subscribe to one of our mailing lists. You will always have the option to unsubscribe to further emails using the unsubscribe instructions at the end of each email.
- To enable us to respond to you when you use the 'contact us' on our website. Data collected in this way will not be used for any other purpose.
- Meeting our legal obligations and exercising any legal rights
- Other purposes for which we may anonymise your information so that it cannot be linked to you.

May 4th 2022

- We use your information in line with our Data Protection Policy and the policies and procedures that apply to our use of your information. All staff are required to sign this statement to confirm their awareness and personal acceptance of the policy.
- To operate our pre-school and children's groups

We will not pass your information onto any other organisations except in the case of our food bank where the data is shared to the Trussell Trust where food bank vouchers have been completed.

We may sometimes be obliged or permitted to disclose your personal data by law such as by a regulator with appropriate legal authority, court order or for other legitimate purposes.

Confidential information

Where you have given us information expressly in confidence, we will keep this information confidential. This means we will store it securely and not share it with other parties unless you have given us explicit permission to do so or there is a statutory duty or court order to disclose. Where we cannot provide our services or support for you unless we can share this information with others, we will require that any information we do share is in turn kept confidential by those other persons.

Others may supply information to us which is confidential. Where information is confidential we may not be able to share the information or the source with you.

Your rights

You have the right to ask us not to process your personal information. However you will need to understand that we may be unable to provide our services to you if we are unable to record and process certain details. You can ask us to amend or correct your personal data.

Changes to our Privacy Statement

This statement may change. We will display the current statement on our website, and in our church and pre-school offices.
